STALKING

On 09/30/2016, LSUPD Criminal Investigations Division received a complainant of a LSU Student being stalked. On 09/30/2016 I, Lt. Abels, met with (LSU Staff) Tracy Blanchard in reference to a LSU female Graduate Student that was being stalked and sexually assaulted by her professor. I met with the victim (LSU Student) [REDACTED] along with her Star Advocate in Blanchard's office. I asked [REDACTED] if she was comfortable with me interviewing her in the office or if she would like to go back to the police station. [REDACTED] stated she was fine with staying at Blanchard's office.

[REDACTED] stated that she is a graduate student in the AG. Department and her professor, who is also her research supervisor, has been harassing her for over the past two years. [REDACTED] identified the professor as Associate Professor Niranjan Baisakh. [REDACTED] stated that she entered the graduate program on July 2014. She stated that starting in September 2014 Baisakh started to harass her. [REDACTED] advised it started by Baisakh coming in her office (located at Sturgis Hall) and locking the door. He would talk to her about how jealous other students were of him because of all the "European girls around him". He would also tell her about how everyone in the department was having "immoral relationships".

[REDACTED] stated that on October 17, 2014, she was in the greenhouse working when Baisakh entered. She stated that he started to take pictures of her on his phone. [REDACTED] advised she tried to leave the greenhouse at which time he hugged her and would not let her go. Baisakh told her "I love you, please love me, please be mine, and please love me". [REDACTED] stated that she rejected him but, he continue over the next few weeks of telling her to love him. [REDACTED] stated that after she kept rejecting him he started to accuse her of having a relationship with her roommate's boyfriend. [REDACTED] stated that she sent him an email saying she was going to leave school because of the incident. Baisakh told her not to leave and that he would leave her alone. Two weeks after the email Baisakh started to harass her again. [REDACTED] stated that Baisakh lives in the same apartment complex as her. She stated that he started to stalk her at the apartments. [REDACTED] stated she sent him more emails about leaving her alone and to stop following her at the apartment complex. [REDACTED] stated that if her bedroom light is on he will send her several emails until she answers him back.

In December 28, 2014, [REDACTED] was in the lab when Baisakh entered and began to touch her on her breast and started to kiss her. [REDACTED] believes that he was drunk. She stated that she pushed him away and slapped him and told Baisakh she wanted to leave. Baisakh told her that he was going to kill himself and that she would be responsible for his death. [REDACTED] stated that she was nervous and scared that he would do something to harm himself and she would be blamed.

In February 2015, Baisakh showed up at her apartment uninvited. The next day Baisakh started to accuse her again of having a relationship with her roommate's boyfriend. [REDACTED] advised that several time during February he knocked on her bedroom window and came to her apartment at 0700 on a Saturday uninvited. [REDACTED] stated that Baisakh started to follow her everywhere she went. If she was at another location of LSU Campus he would show up. He also stated to follow her off campus to the store and the gym.

[REDACTED] advised that every Friday Baisakh will go to Chimes Bar just off campus and he would force her to attend. [REDACTED] said if she would not go with him he would tell other students that her research work was not good enough and she was going to fail.

[REDACTED] stated that if she went to Chimes with him he would not accuse her of having poor research. [REDACTED] stated that several times at Chimes he would try to kiss her and touch her. Baisakh would also force her to drink by pressing her.

[REDACTED] stated that this behavior of Baisakh following her, sending emails, touching her and kissing continue for the next year.

On April 15, 2016, [REDACTED] stated that she refused to go to Chimes with him. [REDACTED] stated that he became upset and locked her office door. She stated that Baisakh ask for her to have sex with him. [REDACTED] stated that Baisakh removed his penis from his pants. [REDACTED] stated that she tried to leave but he held her back and pushed her away from the door. When Baisakh pushed her she fell to the ground. [REDACTED] stated that she grab a knife from her desk and told him if he did not let her leave she would harm herself. Baisakh let [REDACTED] leave the office.

[REDACTED] stated that after that incident he started to accuse her of having sex with her lab partner in the elevator. Baisakh told her that he been following her all semester and that he has seen them together in the elevator three times, so they must be having sex. [REDACTED] stated that he would come to her office and scream at her several times. [REDACTED] stated that she decided that the only way to be removed from him as her professor was to fail his class so she could get a second chance with a different professor. [REDACTED] advised that she did not take the mid-term and final exam on purpose to fail. [REDACTED] stated that she left for the summer and when she returned she checked her grades and found that Baisakh gave her an A. [REDACTED] stated that he must to have known what she was trying to do, so he passed her.

[REDACTED] stated that at this time she does not want to press charges at this time. [REDACTED] has filed a report with Title IX and has been in touch with the LSU CARE Team and Star. LSU will be issuing a no contact order to Baisakh. [REDACTED] hopes that the no contact will make him stop.

The statement that she typed and the emails have been entered into evidence.
